

BABY BUNTING PROUDLY PRESENTING WALK FOR PREMS 2018

Life's Little Treasures Foundation is delighted and proud to announce Baby Bunting as the Presenting Partner of the Walk for Prems, for the third year running.

Baby Bunting is a valued Major Corporate Partner of the Foundation. As Australia's biggest and most loved retailer of baby goods, Baby Bunting understands the many and varied needs of families and is aligned perfectly with supporting those of premature and sick babies.

"We are very proud of the strong charity partnership the Foundation has with Baby Bunting. They have enabled us to make our vision a reality and for that we are very grateful. Baby Bunting plays an integral part in the growth and reach of the Foundation, enabling us to support so many more families in crisis. We'd like to take this opportunity to sincerely thank them for their extraordinary support both for the Walk and as a Major Corporate Partner. We look forward to all the great things we can achieve together in the coming year".

Shusannah Morris,
Co-Founder / CEO Life's Little Treasures Foundation

Life's Little Treasures Foundation looks forward to working with Baby Bunting again in the coming year to ensure that no family endures the traumatic and life changing experience of having a premature or sick baby without easy access to critical information and community support to help them through their journey.
